Through Christ, all our human relationships are restored and should become a reflection of the grace and love of Jesus. We begin to pursue the restoration of our family relationships, our friendships, and our broken relationships.

Through Christ, our relationship with God is reconciled. By grace through faith, we become children of God who have forgiveness of sin, the indwelling Holy Spirit, and eternal life.

Through Christ, we begin to serve and advocate for the meeting of people's physical needs. We strive to ensure every person has food, clothing, shelter, and care for their health needs. We prioritize the values and wisdom of God for all issues which relate to the human body.

Through Christ, we begin to do & view our work through the lens of God's redeeming work in creation. We do our jobs as a contribution to God's good purposes in His world.

Through Christ, our inner self begins to undergo transformation. Our minds begin to think differently with new priorities and godly values (this is called 'the mind of Christ'). Our emotions reflect the presence of God's Spirit within us (this is called 'the fruit of the Spirit').
